TRANSMISSION VERIFICATION REPORT

March 30, 2021

Regina Driskill v. Regions Bank, US District Court, Eastern District of Tennessee, 3:18-cv-102

To: Attorney Melody McAnally this letter is in response to your letter written March 26, 2021. This letter arrived at my home by Fed-Ex on March 29, 2021.
I am informing you on the details as to why I have been unable to do any work on my case. As you are well aware I was blindsided by My previous Attorney who just left abruptly with no warning. I have since then tried to answer AN UNEXPECTED "summary judgment" by Regions Bank. I did the best that I could until my health began to fail me and I was forced into a medical procedure / surgery on Jan. 28, 2021. I am still recovering. I never received a letter, a card, a motion or anything from Regions Banks previous Attorneys, Mckelvey or Polly. So I apologize if I have been a little delayed, on procedures. The next thing I know that quit and you are the new attorney saying "I Never Sent you anything" Again the reasoning is that you came on the scene unexpectedly. I wasn't sure what was going on due to my illness.
I've tried to inform the courts and Regions but No one seems to understand. I am asking for you to <sup>(Allow)</sup> allow me a few weeks to send you all exhibits and if you would schedule a phone conference time for me to call you so we can do a "pretrial order" before the deadline. I am trying to comply with the best of my ability due to my medical condition. I have also tried to "settle" this matter but to no avail. I'm still open to discuss.
